PETER D'ASCOLI, 52

*Interior designer and owner,
D'Ascoli & Company*

This peripatetic textile designer is one of India's best.

Working with designer Diane von Furstenberg

The first time I met Diane, I was wearing a pair of suede jeans and a sweatshirt. My attitude was, if you don't know what to wear then it's better to dress simply than to try too hard.

India, Inc

I have a passion for luxury textiles and the industry is expanding very quickly in India. Ancient crafts still exist here and craftsmen use old techniques, which you won't find anywhere else.
